Staff and Coaching Profiles:

Richard Harris – Indooroopilly Head Coach

Richard has more than 20 years' experience as a professional golfer, as well as an ACE Coaching Accreditation and a Diploma in Professional Golf. Richard's coaching alumni includes elite level tour players and champion amateur representatives. Having been awarded the QLD PGA Club Professional of the Year in 2009, Richard went on to coach the QLD Men's team to national victories in 2010 and 2011. He is incredibly passionate about golf and the positive effect the game can have on people's lives. Richard loves coaching and mentoring players to help reach their golfing goals, from those new to golf right through to experienced players looking to take their game to the next level.

Jim Barden – Victoria Park Golf Complex

Jim brings 40 years of PGA Professional experience to Victoria Park. He was the Gailes Golf Club's Head Professional and QLD State Teams Coach for 10 years and has been the Head Golf Coach at the Queensland Academy of Sport at Brookwater Golf Club. On top of these great achievements, he is part of the PGA Mentor Program for trainees and instructs for the PGA/CGA (Chinese Golf Association) education program. Jim's teaching philosophy is 'the integration of the technical, physical and mental aspects to accelerate the learning processes; and feels Victoria Park is the ideal facility to deliver this philosophy.

Currently Jim is instructing: Adam Blyth on the Australasian Tour, Andrew Dodt on the European Tour, Many others on the Australian Tour

Glenn Domigan – Victoria Park Golf Complex

One of the familiar faces at Victoria Park, Glenn has a very calm and laid-back attitude to coaching on the surface but underneath he has become one of the most qualified and industry certified professionals in Queensland. With over 10 years of experience at Victoria Park as a PGA golf professional and coach, Glenn delivers a high quality coaching experience while ensuring his students have a great time.

His continuing quest for education has seen Glenn become certified in Trackman, SAM PuttLab, Golf BioDynamics and TPI. In the last year alone Glenn had the opportunity to spend time learning from many of the leading figures in the modern game such as Dr Christian Marquart, Dr Rob Neal, Dr Sacho MacKenzie, Cameron McCormick, Denis McDade and Dave Andrews.
